student ambassadors

student exchange between tokushima's joto high school and st. joseph school in france

Every two years 20 students participate in this exchange program, which began in 1998. St. Joseph students visit Joto in late October and Joto students head to France in March. All students do a home stay for about two weeks, have lessons at each school and experience a variety of activities. This year marks the 7th exchange.

Joto High School

Vincent Di Santo

Joto high school is very large and amazing. It's incredible to see. Students clean their own classrooms, so the whole high school is clean. They are always smiling and you can practice many activities. They all wear matching uniforms. They aren't nervous or misbehaved with other students or with teachers. In class they don't talk but they can sleep! They have a home economics room, a calligraphy room and many more. They can practice baseball, Kyudo" archery, soccer, and many other sports. All students are shy but they love us, and everybody takes care of other students. You can sense a lot of respect. I don't know why but they have an elevator. They also have a sports field where they can practice all kinds of sport, as well as two gymnasiums. They have so many things that we don't have in France; it's amazing! I don't want to leave Joto high school.

show tokushima some love: awaglot

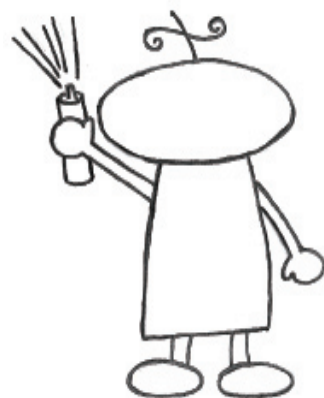

The literary corner of Awa Life, Awaglot, is a combination of the words "awa" and "polyglot", which means multilingual. Be it fiction, non-fiction, prose or poetry; funny, sad, long or short, we want your submissions! If you like to write, then express yourself!

There is also a classifieds section for you, our readers, to post ads in, but a few rules do apply!

The following will not be posted: Religious, political, or commercial activities, businesses searching for clients or employees, things the Awa Life editors deem inappropriate.

BUT, you can totally submit this stuff: offers to sell or exchange personal goods, concerts, lectures, and other event information, cultural, sporting, and other community group information, etcetera.

If you have something you would like to share with the Tokushima community, email the editors at awalife@gmail.com!

christmas cheers

Christmas is a time to share and to give. So for this joyful season, why don't you bake something and spread Christmas cheer to those around you? They'll be merry and you'll be blessed.

For vegans and those who are lactose-intolerant, this is super delicious, and uses NO Eggs and NO milk

SIMPLE FUDGE CAKE

Ingredients

1 cup of sugar
½ cup of cocoa
1 tsp of baking soda,
2 cups of flour
½ tsp of salt,
1 ½ tsp of vanilla
½ cup of cooking (vegetable) oil
1 ½ cups of water
1 tsp of vinegar

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 170-180 degrees.
2. Sift all dry ingredients together.
3. Combine all liquid ingredients in a separate bowl.
4. Add the liquids to the dry and mix well.
5. Bake for 25-40 minutes depending on your pan size - the thicker the layer of batter in the pan the longer it will take. When the edges separate from the sides and a toothpick inserted comes out clean the cake is done. The center will still be a little soft, it hardens as the cake cools but generally this is a moist cake.

6. Cool in the pan until warm then cool completely on wire rack.

7. Frost with your favorite frosting and enjoy.

What I think about とくしま。

Diallo Salenna

The city of とくしま , to me, is a beautiful and great city. It is one of the best places in the world. There are a lot of things to visit and to see, such as あわおどり (Awa-Odori) which is a weird but funny dance. The streets and roads are so big, much bigger than in le Havre(my town) – it's fascinating!

Moreover, restaurants here have more delicious meals and a good vibe, which gives us a warm feeling when we eat out. However, if you are not from the city, you can easily get lost, as there are so many streets. I find the houses here very beautiful and different from the European designs.

My host family is really kind hearted and warm - they do everything to make me feel at ease. They are so sweet and lovely. They gave me lots of gifts, even though they didn't have to, and they made so many Japanese meals, I was able to taste a large variety of Japanese food. I'm really thankful to them. By the way, おかあさん is a very good cook, ほんとうに !

My pen pal is kind, nice, friendly and adorable! She also does everything to make me happy and through her I was able to discover a lot of things.

Finally, とくしま is a "must visit" place - I'm sure that in the future, I will come back here again, that's for sure!

Visiting Kyoto

Marianne Lespagnol

"On Saturday October 27th we went to Kyoto. First we went to Kinkakuji: the surrounding area is peaceful and amazing to look at, full of the colors of Momiji; scarlet-tinged maple leaves.

Then we headed to the Heian Jingu Shrine. It was the shichi-go-san (753 festival), which meant there were a lot of people, young, teens and grown-ups in kimonos - it was very beautiful. We took a lot of photos of those people. The garden of the shrine was also very pleasant with the little lakes, trees, and fish...

Next we went to the Kiyomizu Temple. It's high up! I knew this spot from "Negima", a manga, but it is not exactly the same in reality. From this building we had an amazing view of Kyoto! In the afternoon we went shopping near Kiyomizu, where there are many shops selling traditional objects from Japan (chopsticks, Yukata, Sensu fans) or food (dango dumplings, green tea ice cream etc.). I bought a beautiful Yukata and a matching handbag.

To sum up it, I enjoyed this trip to Kyoto a lot!

Why did I choose the Japanese Language?

Maissa

First of all I love Japan because Japanese culture is very beautiful. At first I learned Japanese by myself with my computer and a dictionary. When I was a child I watched a lot of anime on TV. Now I read manga, I watch dramas, anime and I listen to Japanese music. I read and watch; Naruto, Bleach, One Piece, Dragonball, Ashitane Joe, Doraemon...

I learned Japanese by myself through manga, dramas and anime. I watch drama or anime everyday on my computer. Through that, I had an image of Japanese culture based on famous characters such as Yukimura, Sonoda and Date Masamune.

The Japanese culture is very beautiful and different. The food is delicious. I love Sushi, Sashimi, Onigiri, Green tea, Yakitori, and Takoyaki. There is a lot of Japanese food that I love.

However, the biggest reason why I chose Japanese is sports. I love baseball - it's my passion and my favorite sport. I play softball (because I am a girl.), but I really want to play baseball like the boys. In Japan the baseball is very, very famous. In Japan there are many stadiums, batting centers and school baseball clubs. The Giants and the Fighters teams are doing very well. My favorite Japanese Manga is "Major". It's a baseball manga.

To finish, the culture, food and sports of Japan are very beautiful and amazing!! That's why I chose Japanese.

Hosting a student from France

Katayama Akari

A girl named Juliette came to my home. Before she came, I had been in contact with her by e-mail. I was looking forward to seeing her. When I first met her, I was a little nervous. "Can she understand my English?" I worried.

However, she was very friendly and my anxiety soon disappeared. I belong to a gardening club and we held a Halloween party for the French students. At first it was difficult for us to talk to them but when one of us drew some anime characters on the blackboard, everyone started to talk about anime. Eventually we talked about many topics and had a really good time. At the party, I didn't think communication was so difficult.

At home my family only spoke broken English but we could communicate with each other. We laughed and smiled every day. Thanks to Juliette I made both Japanese and French friends. Juliette is cute and was loved by everyone. We sometimes had unexpected incidents but we enjoyed them. Being part of a host family gave me good memories. I hope Juliette has them too. I want to see her again someday.

Expressions of Giving and Receiving あげる, くれる, もらう

Rule1 Use もらう for acts of “receiving.”

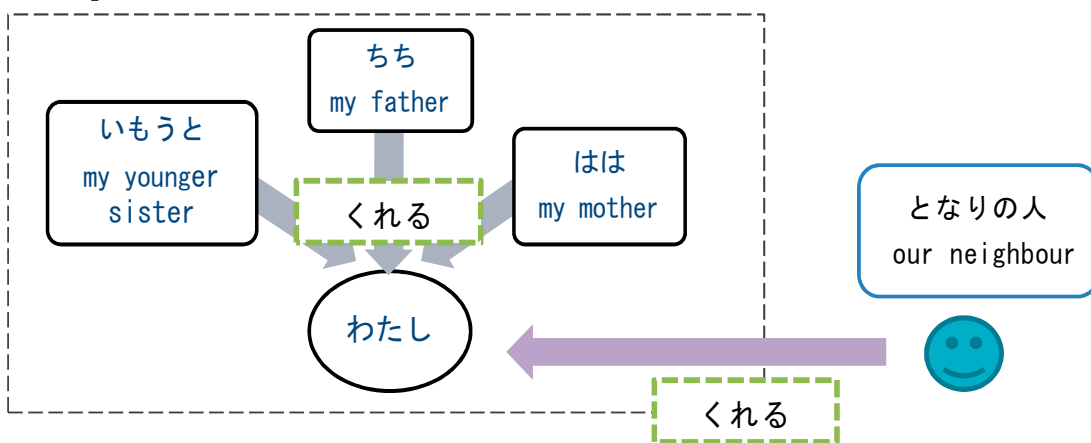

Rule2 Use あげる for acts of “giving”, except when the recipient is you, or a family member (くれる).

Rule3 Use くれる when the recipient is you, or a family member.

① あげる／もらう／くれる

Example[1]

わたしは クリスマスに いろいろな人から プレゼントを もらいました。 At Christmas, I received presents from a lot of different people.

(1) 父は (わたしに) 時計を くれました。 My father gave (me) a watch.

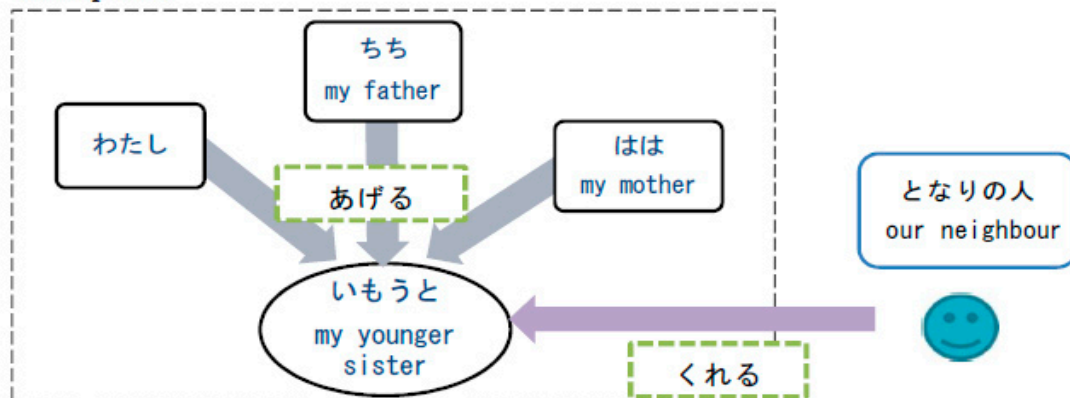

(2) 母は (わたしに) てぶくろを くれました。 My mother gave (me) a pair of gloves.

(3) 妹は (わたしに) さいふを くれました。 My younger sister gave (me) a wallet.

(4) となりの人は (わたしに) クッキーを くれました。 Our neighbour gave (me) cookies.

* You can't use 「あげます」 in sentences (1)~(4).

Example[2]

いもうと は 誕生日に いろいろな人から プレゼントを もらいました。 On her birthday, my younger sister received presents from a lot of different people.

(5) 父は いもうと に かばんを あげました。 My father gave my younger sister a bag.

(6) 母は いもうと に セーターを あげました。 My mother gave my younger sister a sweater.

(7) わたしは いもうと に ソックスを あげました。 I gave my younger sister socks.

(8) とりの人は いもうと に ハンカチを くれました。 Our neighbour gave my younger sister a handkerchief.

* You can't use 「あげます」 in a sentence (8).

くれる is particular case, and あげる is more general. Associate くれる with くる, imagining that a gift is coming toward you as a speaker or your family member, etc.

December is upon us, and with it comes a variety of events for children to enjoy. However, these fun events such as Christmas aside, December also marks the season where colds and the flu run wild.

Protective measures such as washing your hands and gargling are a must and it's also important to allow your child plenty of rest if they seem under the weather.

Few children are fond of taking medicine, so this month I'd like to introduce some tips for making those bitter pills a little easier to swallow:

Syrups

- Use a dropper to administer the medicine bit by bit

- Freeze the syrup into a popsicle (check with a doctor first that this will not alter the properties of the medicine).

Powdered medicines

- Form a paste by mixing the powder with a small amount of water. Rub the paste into the inner cheek or upper jaw area (this avoids the taste buds). Have the child wash it down with a drink of water.

- Mix the powder into food

... Recommended foods: sweet or cold foods (i.e. pudding, maple syrup, sugar syrups or ice cream). There are also commercially available jellies made especially for this purpose.

Note: Don't mix medicines into foods that feature regularly in your child's diet (i.e. in Japan, creamy rice, udon noodles, milk etc.) - if the association with medicine causes the child to develop a dislike of such foods it can prove problematic.

Also, be aware that certain foods can cause the chemical composition of antibiotics to alter.

Hand-held drum

Materials:

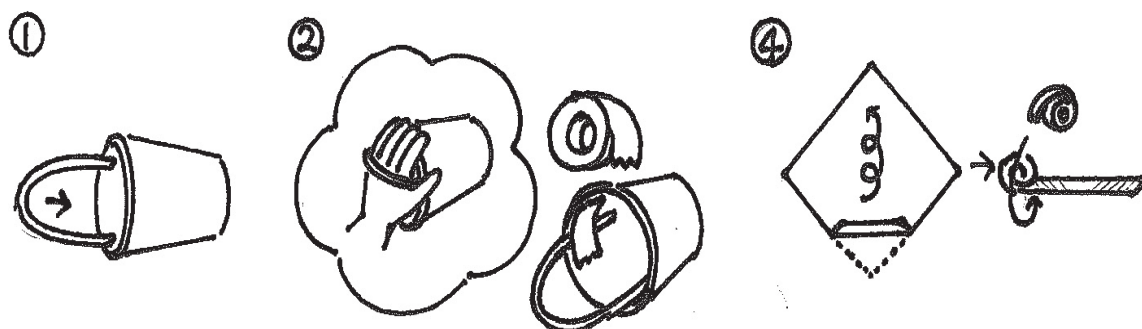

- Paper cup
- Lace
- Thick tape (Duck/Masking)
- A flyer/thick paper
- Pen/Pencils for decorating

Instructions:

1. Form a U shape with the lace over the mouth of the cup.
2. Adjusting the U shape to a size into which your hand fits snugly, secure the lace using the tape (see picture 2).
3. Decorate the paper cup as desired.
4. Make a drum stick by rolling the leaflet/thick paper into a tube and stiffening it with tape.

How to Use:

Enjoy your new musical instrument by hitting the base of the cup with the stick and singing to the rhythm !
